Learning is the main focus of Bloomington Public Schools. So, we often need to ask ourselves, “Why do we do the things we do in schools?” We understand that the way we teach and learn is evolving, and we must evolve with it. With the help of professionals and the support of Bloomington families and stakeholders, we’ve made a new strategic plan to guide our district into the future.

DREAM

Instill confidence for all to explore their dreams.

BELIEVE

Empower learners to believe in their greatness.

ACHIEVE

All learners achieve success together.
