Special Caring Awards
2018

The Special Education Community Advisory Council (SECAC) is looking for nominations for our annual Special Caring Awards banquet this spring.

Each year SECAC recognizes Bloomington School District Staff such as special education, regular education, transportation, food service, students and any other school support staff who have done an outstanding job working with our Special Education students beyond their daily responsibilities.

We would also like you to pass this information on to parents of Special Education students who may be interested in nominating someone.

The last day we accept letters is March 23, 2018 as directed on the Nomination Form.
